5. Guest Speakers:

Kevin Guthrie, Pasco County's new Assistant County Administrator for Public Safety

Mr. Guthrie has vast experience in Public Safety and Emergency Management in the state of Florida. He spent 23 years as a Police Officer and Emergency Preparedness Coordinator with the city of Jacksonville. Most recently, he served as the Emergency Services Director for Pasco County (2016). For two years prior to that he served as the Public Safety and Emergency Management Director for the Flagler County Board of County Commissioners.

Kevin has a B.A. in Criminal Justice, a Master's in Human Services and is pursuing a degree in Homeland Security. He also has a huge training and exercise background, with certifications from FEMA and the Florida Emergency Preparedness Association in several areas of Emergency Management.

Kevin has won numerous awards for his efforts and success in emergency management – including the Chad Reed First Responder Award from Florida Governor Rick Scott and the Presidential Call to Service Award from President Obama.

Kevin is now the Assistant County Administrator for Public Safety and is responsible for all of the Emergency Services, Fire/Rescue and Misdemeanor Probation departments. His primary focus is coordinating efforts among all the agencies responsible for dealing with natural and man-made disasters in our community.
