

PACA Media Release
For release on Monday, January 04, 2010

Pasco County Commissioner, Michael Cox, to discuss the county's "2010 Strategic Plan" at PACA's January 14, meeting.

LAND O' LAKES – Pasco County Commissioner Michael Cox will discuss county issues at the January 14, meeting of the Pasco Alliance of Community Associations (PACA).

The meeting, open to the public as well as to PACA members, begins at 7 p.m. on Thursday, January 14, at the Land O' Lakes Community Center located at 5401 Land O' Lakes Blvd. (US 41), three miles north of SR 54.

Commissioner Cox is a Certified Financial Planner and represents the fourth district of Pasco County. He will speak also on the "parking ordinance amendment", which can have a significant impact to our residential communities.

PACA is a not-for-profit organization whose members include representatives from 75 of Pasco County's homeowner associations, community development districts and condominium associations. PACA assists members by educating them on common issues and finding solutions to shared problems. It also represents the interests of members before all levels of government.

For more information on PACA, contact either Membership Director David Quinones at (813) 991-1505 or President Joe Wyatt at (813) 907-2081, or visit the PACA website at www.MyPACA.org.

Media publicity for, and coverage of, this event is welcomed.