

PACA Media Release

For release on Monday, March 01, 2010

“Chief Assistant County Administrator Michele Baker to discuss county issues at PACA’s March 11, meeting.

LAND O' LAKES – Chief Assistant County Administrator, Michele Baker will speak on county issues at the March 11, meeting of the Pasco Alliance of Community Associations (PACA).

In addition, Ms. Deborah Bolduc, Program Administrator for Engineering Services, will speak on road issues. This issue is very timely due to the massive road construction taking place throughout our county.

The meeting, open to the public as well as to PACA members, begins at 7 p.m. on Thursday, March 11, at the Land O' Lakes Community Center located at 5401 Land O' Lakes Blvd. (US 41), three miles north of SR 54.

PACA is a not-for-profit organization whose members include representatives from 75 of Pasco County's homeowner associations, community development districts and condominium associations. PACA assists members by educating them on common issues and finding solutions to shared problems. It also represents the interests of members before all levels of government.

For more information on PACA, contact either Membership Director David Quinones at (813) 991-1505 or President Joe Wyatt at (813) 907-2081, or visit the PACA website at www.MyPACA.org.

Media publicity for, and coverage of, this event is welcomed.
